From Principal's desk....

Dear Parents & Students,

Greetings!

As per the latest directive received from the Ministry of Education and Higher Education, Department of Private Schools and Kindergartens (Circular No. 16 of 2025), Tuesday, 4th November 2025, will be observed as a distance learning day for KG to Grade 12.

Accordingly, please note the following important information:

- There will be no on-campus classes on Tuesday, 4th November 2025.
- All lessons will be conducted online via the Zoom platform as per the regular class timetable.
- Students are expected to log in on time, dressed appropriately, and actively participate in all scheduled sessions.
- Teachers will take attendance during each session.
- The school campus will remain closed for students, parents, and staff on this day.
- HRT's will share the Zoom IDs for all the subjects with the parents.

We request all parents to ensure that their ward has access to the required device and internet connectivity for smooth participation in online classes.

We look forward to your cooperation in ensuring a productive and seamless online learning experience.

Warm regards,

Meenal Bakshi
Principal
