Working Saturday on 13.12.2025

Dear Parents,

Greetings of the day!

This is to inform you that Saturday, 13th December 2025, will be a working day for all students and teachers of Grades 1 to 8. This working day is being compensated in place of the holiday granted on 3rd December due to the Annual Day celebrations.

Please note the following important instructions:

1. Attendance is compulsory for all students & teachers.
2. Reporting Time: 8:00 AM and Bus Dispersal Time: 12:00 PM
3. On this day, students will participate in Sports Day run-through practice on the football field.
4. Dress Code for Students: House Uniform or PE Uniform along with a cap.
5. Dress Code for Teachers: Comfortable and sporty attire suitable for field practice.
6. Students may bring extra water bottles and light snacks to stay hydrated and energetic throughout the practice session.
7. Mass Display practices will be conducted under strict supervision to ensure discipline, safety, and smooth coordination.
8. For morning pick-up timings, parents are requested to contact the respective bus drivers directly.
9. Kindly ensure students reach on time as punctuality is essential for organized practice.
10. Students should not carry any valuables. Only necessary items such as water, food, and a cap should be brought.

11. We request parents to encourage children to rest well the previous night so they can participate actively and safely.

We seek your cooperation in making our Sports Day preparations successful and ensuring a productive practice session for all students.

Thank you for your continued support.
