STUDENT COUNCIL SELECTION AY (2026-27)

MIDDLE & SECONDARY SCHOOL

Dear Parents,

Greetings!

DPS Monarch International School is delighted to announce the commencement of the application and selection process for the Student Council AY 2026-27. The Student Council plays a vital role in representing the student body and contributing to meaningful decision-making related to student affairs.

The Council Provides Students with a platform to practise leadership, responsibility and active citizenship. It encourages student voice, empowers learners to take initiative and fosters a sense of ownership toward their school community.

Members of the Student Council undertake important responsibilities, including:

- Representing the School at official functions and inter-school activities
- Presenting the views and concerns of the student's body to key school authorities.
- Supporting the school in its day-to-day functioning and contributing positively to the school environment
